

WHO ARE YOU ?

Key Scripture: Jeremiah 1:5, 7 NIV
[5] "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I set you apart; I appointed you as a prophet to the nations... [7] But the Lord said to me, "Do not say, 'I am too young.' You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you."

Have you ever wondered why God created you? Have you ever asked yourself why you have certain burdens, passions, abilities or desires that seem different from those around you? Many believers spend their lives comparing themselves with others because they have not discovered their own assignment. They admire another person's calling, gift, or ministry and even attempt to function in an office God never gave them.

To function effectively in the Kingdom of God, we must first understand our identity, our position, and our divine assignment. There is a dimension of spiritual understanding where you no longer read the Bible as just the story of others, but you now see yourself in the scripture and began to discover the purpose which God had written concerning your life.

Jesus understood this principle when He declared:

Hebrews 10:7 "Then I said, 'Behold, I have come—In the volume of the book it is written of Me—to do Your will, O God.'"

Jesus found His assignment in Scripture, He knew why He came. Likewise, we must also discover what has been written concerning us by searching the scriptures.

Understanding Kingdom Assignments

In the Kingdom of God, every person has a different assignment. An apostle is different from a pastor. A pastor is different from a bishop. A worship leader is different from an intercessor. A teacher is different from an evangelist. They all serve the same God, but they operate in different offices.

1 Corinthians 12:18 "But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He pleased". Apostles carry a responsibility toward the wider body of Christ. Their assignment may involve strengthening believers, bringing correction, establishing truth, and reaching different places. Pastors are assigned to shepherd a specific congregation, nurture believers, and provide spiritual guidance. Neither assignment is greater than the other. They are simply different responsibilities in one body of Christ.

WHO ARE YOU ?

The problem begins when we compare our assignment with someone else's assignment.

The Danger Of Comparison

Comparison is one of the greatest distractions from fulfilling purpose. The bible describes that it is foolish to compare oneself with another in 1 Corinthians 10 v12: For we dare not class ourselves or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.(2Corinthians 10 v12)

The sister who sings powerfully in the choir may have been called specifically to serve in that local church. That is her place of assignment, while another person may have been assigned to influence nations through prayer, teaching, leadership, or intercession.

Reflective Thinking!

The question is not: “Why am I not doing what they are doing?”

The question we should ask ourselves “Am I faithfully doing what God called me to do?”

A soldier and a police officer may both serve a nation, but their responsibilities are different.

The same applies in God's Kingdom. Different offices, Different responsibilities. One body of Christ! One Holy Spirit ! One God the Father!
